WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY IN ST. LOUIS

COMMUNITY YOUTH PROGRAMS
EXPECTATIONS FOR CAMPUS VISITORS AND COMMUNITY PARTNERS

• Minor children brought to Washington University (hereinafter “Community Youth”) must be properly supervised and escorted while on campus, including drop-off and pick-up.

• Community Youth may only be dropped off/picked up on campus at previously designated locations and times.

• Community Youth must remain within the areas of the University campus designated for their particular event or program, and are not authorized to access other areas of campus.

• Community Youth are not permitted to enter any University residence halls, unless expressly authorized in writing by the Office of Residential Life.

• At all times while on campus, Community Youth must display name tags identifying the individual’s name, the program or event with which they are associated, the dates of that program, and contact information for the program’s University representative.

• Community Youth are expected to behave in a manner consistent with all applicable University policies and guidelines during their visit(s) to campus. Individuals who display inappropriate behavior will not be welcomed back to campus.

• The University requires that the community partner maintain a release, waiver of liability, and authorization for medical treatment for each program participant.

• Violation of any of these standards of conduct may result in an immediate disqualification for participation in University programs involving Community Youth.
